

2016- 2017 Evening School of Excellence

SESSION II: SPRING Registration Information

Program Description

The Evening School of Excellence primarily serves high school students who have experienced academic difficulties, personal challenges, and/or are at-risk of not graduating on time. Designed to help students get back on track to graduation, the program provides an opportunity for students to complete coursework and recover credits needed for graduation through evening classes. The instructional program addresses the learning styles of students through smaller classes, more individualized attention, and differentiated teaching strategies.

Important Information for Students Registering for Evening School

Regular, consistent attendance in Evening School is essential to student success. The courses are fast-paced and each day of attendance is critical.

No more than three (3) absences, excused or unexcused, are permitted in the program. Students who are absent more than 3 days may be withdrawn from the program.

Three (3) tardies or 3 early dismissals will be counted as one absence.

There are NO EXCEPTIONS to this requirement, REGARDLESS OF THE OTHER REASONS.

All classes end promptly at 8:30 pm. Students must be picked up immediately by an authorized party upon class dismissal.

Late pickups occurring after 8:30 pm will be recorded by the ESOE Site Coordinator. Three (3) or more late pickups are considered a violation of the attendance policy and will be handled accordingly.

Attendance and tardy requirements are not meant to be punitive.

All schools must maintain and enforce a minimum number of student hours per class in order to retain their accreditation.

TUITION/ REFUND POLICY

Tuition must be paid to the home school when the application is submitted.

Once a course has started, no refunds will be authorized after February 17, 2017.

No refunds will be authorized for students withdrawn for excessive absences or disciplinary reasons.

Henrico County Public Schools reserves the right to cancel classes for which there is insufficient enrollment and disburse refunds to affected students accordingly.

INSTRUCTION

Make Up work applies to excused absences due to illness, bereavement, and religious holidays.

DISCIPLINE

Evening School is a privilege, not a requirement.

The program is designed to help students get back on track and earn credits needed for graduation. Inappropriate disruptions and improper behavior will not be tolerated.

Students referred to the ESOE Coordinator for violations of discipline may be withdrawn.

If a student is suspended from day school, they cannot attend evening school on the days of their suspensions. This will count as an absence.

The Henrico County Public Schools Code of Student Conduct will be enforced in the Evening School of Excellence.

I give permission for my son/daughter to participate in the Evening School of Excellence. I have read the above guidelines and the HCPS Code of Student Conduct, and I will ensure that my child will comply with all regulations.
