

P6-03-013 Enrollment of Homeless Students

The policy of the Henrico County School Board is to comply with the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, as amended ("Act"), the federal law that ensures educational rights and protection of children and youth experiencing homelessness. It is the policy of this Board that the provisions of the Act shall supersede all existing policies and regulations. Authority is given to the Superintendent or designee to implement new regulations or override existing policies and regulations to implement the provisions of the Act.
